THE UNIVERSITY

Bowling Green State University is an integral part of the system of higher education maintained by the State of Ohio. It is governed by a Board of Trustees appointed by the Governor, and is supported almost entirely by legislative appropriations.

A 1910 General Assembly Act authorized an appointed commission to seek a site in Northwestern Ohio for a new normal school. Bowling Green was selected and trustees were appointed in 1911 with the first president elected in 1912.

The college known as Bowling Green Normal College opened in temporary quarters in September 1914, and one year later moved into two new buildings on the present campus.

In 1929 the General Assembly changed the name to Bowling Green State College. The present name was authorized by the 1935 assembly.

The University is composed of four main divisions: College of Education, College of Liberal Arts, College of Business Administration, and the Graduate School. Courses are offered in forty-four different departments, and the school is recognized by all accrediting agencies.

The university is located on a tract of 240 acres in northeastern part of Bowling Green. Over fifty campus buildings are available this year. Two new dormitories, a student union and a classroom building, costing a total 6-million, will be started this year.

The city of Bowling Green, with a population of 9,108, is located 25 miles south of Toledo at the intersection of U.S. Routes 25 and 6. A branch of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and Greyhound bus lines serve the city.

The university is co-educational with a 1954 spring enrollment of 3,120. The breakdown shows 1,652 men and 1,468 women. The anticipated enrollment for 1954-55 is 3,400.

THE HEAD COACH

As he starts his 26th year in the gridiron business, Robert H. (Bob) Whittaker can look back on a most enviable record as a scholastic and college coach.

For 24 years of this period Bob has been a head coach. Only in his first year at Sandusky, Ohio, high school did he serve as an assistant. The overall record shows the keen strategist has 151 victories, nine ties and only 63 setbacks for an outstanding .697 percentage. Not many coaches can point to such a fine record.

In 13 years at the BG helm Bob has watched his Falcon elevens take 64 wins and seven ties in 105 games for a .592 average.

During this time the Falcons have enjoyed several outstanding seasons. In 1952, BG's first in Mid-American competition, the Falcons ran up a 7-2 record, losing only to Miami and Ohio U., in the MAC. The 257 points were the most scored by a Falcon eleven.

The 1949 and 1950 seasons were rebuilding years after the undefeated 1948 season. That year the Falcons swept by eight straight foes before deadlocking John Carroll, 13-all, in the season's finale. Several small bowl bids were rejected by the team and staff after consideration.

During the World War II period Bob kept football alive at BG, when many schools gave up the sport. Often he pieced together teams composed of Navy V-12 men and a few civilians, but always managed a winning season.

Whittaker began his college coaching career on a high note when he came to BG in 1941. After the progressive Sandusky superintendent of schools Dr. Frank J. Prout moved to Bowling Green as president, he induced Whittaker to leave the fine Sandusky set-up and take over the Falcons.

After a tie by Wooster and a 8-0 loss to Akron, the Falcons recorded seven straight victories and Whittaker was nominated as Ohio's candidate for the "Coach of the Year" award.

His 11-year Sandusky record is even more outstanding. From 1932 to 1936 the Streaks won 38 consecutive games. This was five more victories than recorded at Massillon by Paul Brown. His 1931-33-34-35-38 teams were undefeated. He developed such Ohio State stars as Charles Maag, Edward Bruckner and Leonard Thom. As he left Sandusky for BG, his record showed 87 victories, two ties, and only 20 defeats.

Born in Greenville, Ohio, Bob attended high school at Lorain and Norwalk, taking part in four years of football. At Miami University he played halfback where his teammates included Paul Brown and "Weeb" Ewbank, both now head coaches in National Professional League. Bob also took part in track at the Oxford school, running the dashes and throwing the javelin to a college record.

He was graduated from Miami with a degree of bachelor of science in education. Bob took graduate work at Ohio State but received his MA from Bowling Green in 1942.

Bob spends most of his vacation at his summer home on Put-In-Bay Island in Lake Erie where he teaches sailing and does all the carpentry work on his home. Besides sailing, Bob likes handball and ice skating and other winter sports for diversion. He is an assistant professor in health and physical education and rated by students as a fine teacher in health education courses.

1954 PROSPECTS

After suffering his poorest season in 25 years of coaching last year, Bob Whittaker will still be rebuilding his Falcon machine this season.

The veteran mentor will have 13 of last year's 22 lettermen back, along with 13 of 20 numeral winners coming up from the freshman team.

The biggest loss among those not returning will be little all-America end Jim Ladd, now a member of the Chicago Bears professional team. The loss of veteran center Bill Robinson because of ineligibility at the end of summer school also was a blow.

Depth again, as always, will be Whittaker's biggest problem, with injuries to key regulars a big factor in the success of the season. We might add the progress of sophomores an equally large factor.

The running offense, which netted only 662 yards last fall, should improve. Besides quarterback Bill Bradshaw, who picked up 236 of the total last year, the backfield candidates include veterans Glen Freimark and John Ladd, second and fourth in the ground gaining departments in 1953. That puts three-fourths of the backfield in lettermen's hands. The fullback job will find a real fight between sophomore Jack Giroux, outstanding freshman in spring drills, and Ben Rowe, a converted guard who shows a lot of power running. Reserve strength is slim at halfback with sophomores Larry Kent and John Galyas most likely to work into the lineup as spot players. Sam Epstein, a reserve last fall, could help the situation if a knee operation holds up.

Bradshaw, the top ranking quarterback in Mid-American Conference with his 24 completions, and the nation's 31st ranking passer, will keep the passing game in fine shape. Jim Bryan will lend able backing. On the receiving end big Jim Ladd will be missed but Martin Keipp and Jack Hecker will be key targets with Chuck Kisselle coming forth as the season progresses.

Up front the center job is a big question. Sophomore Harold Peek looks like the best bet, but Hal Bruck, who has won two letters at various positions, could move into the picture with experience.

Three lettermen have inside on guard spots. They are Keith Fowler, Otto Beindorf, a tackle last year, and Joe Stanziale. This delegation will get some help from sophomore Jim Wilson but other manpower is slim.

The BG tackles will be biggest in history. Junior Fred Koch is the only letterman so sophomores will have to play their part. The boy that Whittaker hopes will fill one hole is 275-pound Kenny Russell. Two other first year huskies, Bill Havens and Dan Hurst, might be contenders with experience. Jim Longe and Bill Hall are on hand from last year's reserves.

Hecker and Keipp are top end candidates with Kisselle alternating with them. The depth here is very limited with sophomore Joe DeLuca and junior Al Rowe the best bets. Some others could be changed to fortify this position.

The line will average about 205 pounds with their defensive ability certainly a questionable factor. Linebackers might be a weak spot.

The running attack will be improved and the aerial attack, 25th in the nation last season, probably won't be as prominent as in '53. Bradshaw will keep the punting atop the nation, where he finished last season with a 44-yard average.

Team speed is improved over last year and the downfield blocking should help the running offense click.

THE STYLE OF PLAY

System: Mixture of Bob Whittaker's T-formation and short punt with a sprinkling of split-T.

Ground Game: The running attack, featuring quick opening line plays, off tackle smashes and end sweeps, will be led by quarterback Bill Bradshaw, halfbacks Jack Giroux and Ben Rowe. Speedster Larry Kent will be called for the end sweeps.

Aerial Attack: Bill Bradshaw, the nation's 31st small college passer, and top passer in Mid-American, will be the chief tosser. Jack Hecker will be his top receiver with Marty Keipp and Chuck Kisselle not far behind.

Kicking Game: Bradshaw, the best in college football in 1953 (includes both major and minor teams), will do most of the punting. In two years the veteran quarterback has kicked 98 of 99 times for 41.6 average. Jim Bryan is next in line.

Kickoffs and Point After: An array of specialists are available here. Jim Bryan, with his dropkick (8 out of 9 in '53) will get some placement work as well as Hecker.

PRESS, RADIO AND BROADCASTERS INFORMATION

The press box in the Bowling Green stadium, although not elaborate or any too large, usually can adequately handle all working press, radio broadcasters and authorized scouts.

Because the space is limited, only press and radio men actually working the games are requested to make application for space. Other press and radio representatives desiring to see any or all of the Falcon games will be furnished complimentary tickets upon request. No women will be allowed in the press box during contests.

Applications for press and radio reservations should be made as early as possible. Early reservations will help you and us. Those desiring wire service should specify same in reserving space and also notify the Western Union at your terminal. This makes a double check on the installation of this service. Reservations can be made by writing, wiring or telephoning Don Cunningham, Director of Athletic Publicity, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio. Office phone is 5661.

Photographers desiring field passes should contact Mr. Cunningham in the same manner as the press. Dark room facilities will be available for those desiring same.

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics hopes that all visiting newsmen and radio broadcasters will feel at home when covering our contests. We are ready to give you the best possible service while you are here, and should you have suggestions as to how we can improve this service, we will welcome the opportunity for you to pass these thoughts on to us.
