The University . . .

Bowling Green State University is an integral part of the system of higher education maintained by the State of Ohio. It is governed by a Board of Trustees appointed by the Governor, and is supported entirely by legislative appropriations and student fees.

A 1910 General Assembly Act authorized an appointed commission to seek a site in Northwestern Ohio for a new normal school. Bowling Green was selected, and trustees were appointed in 1911 with the first president elected in 1912.

The college known as Bowling Green Normal College opened in temporary quarters in September, 1914, and one year later moved into two new buildings on the present campus.

In 1929 the General Assembly changed the name to Bowling Green State College. The present name was authorized by the 1935 assembly.

The University is composed of four main divisions: College of Education, College of Liberal Arts, College of Business Administration, and the Graduate School. Courses are offered in forty-four different departments, and the school is recognized by all accrediting agencies. The faculty numbers over 250.

The University is located on a tract of 240 acres in northeastern part of Bowling Green. Over fifty permanent campus buildings are available this year.

Construction of a home economics building and an $800,000 classroom building is now underway. A men's residence center, an additional wing to the chemistry and physical science building, and Memorial Building, housing physical education, ROTC and intercollegiate athletic facilities, will be started this school year.

The city of Bowling Green, with a population of 12,000, is located 23 miles south of Toledo at the intersection of U.S. Highways 6 and 25, and is only 15 miles from the Ohio Turnpike.

The University is co-educational with a 1957-58 top enrollment of 4,796. Division of students showed 2,646 men and 2,150 women. The anticipated enrollment for 1958-59 is 5,050.

The Head Coach . . .

Doyt Perry

He launched his coaching and teaching career at Lorain Clearview where he was head basketball and track coach. In 1937 he instituted football and in six years his Clearview teams won 32, lost nine and tied four, including four league championships.

In basketball and track at Clearview, his record was even better. The court teams won 161 games while losing only 35. His track teams won seven county championships and three league titles.

In 1943 Perry took over at Upper Arlington as head football and basketball coach. He was also coordinator of the health and physical education and recreation activities. His first football team at the Columbus suburb won seven of nine and the basketball team was undefeated until the semi-finals of the district tournament.

After a 3-year hitch in the U.S. Navy, Perry returned to the Columbus school in 1946 but limited his coaching duties to football. His first post-war team was undefeated in nine games. In six seasons the Arlington eleven won or shared the Central Buckeye League title four times. His 1950 offensive-minded machine also was undefeated and scored more points than any other Ohio high school.

As Woody Hayes left Miami in 1951 to take over at Ohio State, Perry was asked to join the Buckeye staff where he served four years as backfield coach. He helped in the development of such Big Ten standouts as Fred Bruney, Johnny Borton, Dave Leggett, Bobby Watkins and Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy.

Hayes considered him the offensive statistical brain of the Buckeye attack that culminated Ohio State's 1954 Western Conference championship with a Rose Bowl win.

In three short years Coach Doyt Perry has proved himself one of the nation's leading gridiron mentors with his fine conduct of the Bowling Green football program.

In this period the Falcons have not finished lower than a tie for second in the Mid-American Conference and won the crown in 1956. His record for these years shows 21-2-4. The only losses have been 7-0 and 13-7 setbacks by Miami.

Perry's well-coached teams, displaying an offensive attack featuring a sound split-T ground game along with an outstanding defense, have garnered many honors for their diminutive coach and themselves. Perry was voted the Ohio College Football Coach of the Year in 1956 and was winner of the Columbus Touchdown Club award to Ohio's outstanding collegiate coach. Ten players have gained all-Ohio and all-MAC honors. Two standouts have participated in the Blue-Grey games. A host of other honors have also come Bowling Green way.

But being on top is nothing new to Perry. Ever since he received his degree from Bowling Green in 1932, the diminutive Falcon three sport star has turned out winning teams.

Perfectionist Perry can look proudly at an over-all football record of 94 victories, 22 losses and 10 ties for a fine .786 average.

Perry was also an outstanding athlete in his day. While an undergraduate, he gained wide recognition for his 3-sport ability. He was quarterback on 1929-30-31 teams that went 18 games without a defeat. In fact, the new BG coach only played in three losing games during his college career. He was noted for his fine running and passing. He won all-Northwestern Ohio Conference league honors as a junior and senior, and also received all-Ohio mention in his final year. He was a regular forward for three seasons in basketball, and completed his 9-letter career with three baseball awards as shortstop for Coach Warren E. Steller.

Perry received his secondary education at Hartford high in Croton (Licking County) Ohio, where he was a 3-sport participant and captain of all teams as a senior.

He received his master's degree in physical education in 1938 from Ohio State.

Mrs. Perry is the former Loretta Zeroll of Elyria. They have three children, Judy, 17 a freshman at BGSU; David, 11; and Doyt Lee, 7.

Prospects . . .

In contrast to last year when he had 20 seasoned lettermen, Coach Doyt Perry has only 13 lettermen returning from last year's team which finished in a second place tie with Marshall in the 1958 Mid-American Conference race.

Only two of the lettermen are backfield men, including last year's leading ground gainer, Bob Ramlow, who was one of the MAC's top rushing stars with 492 yards. The other ball carrying returnee is halfback Harold Furcron.

That means Perry will be going both at quarterback and fullback with inexperienced personnel. The signal-calling job probably will wage into a three-way battle between junior Bob Colburn and seniors Brian Lewis and Norm Salminen. All saw only token action last fall.

The fullback post looks a little more promising with chunky Jerry Dianaska the top candidate. The Cleveland junior came into his own in the final three games when injuries had Sturg Russell out of action. He finished fourth among the team rushers and picked up practically all of his 198 yards in three games. Sophomores Ron Worstell and Bob Rueblin will be pushing for the spot but Dianaska's defensive superiority should keep him in front.

Ramlow and Furcron should hold forth at the halfbacks where depth is one of Perry's problems. Sophomore Bernie Casey, an end on the freshman club, will get a try at a ball carrying job while his Columbus colleague Chuck Comer is expected to be top reserve candidate.

Junior Bob Young is the only varsity reserve on hand from last fall. Sophomores Jim Andrews, Dick Vura, John Ruper and Wayne Mauk are other possibles. Ohio State transfer John Auer could help the situation.

Up front lettermen will hold forth at every spot except guards where the ranks were riddled by graduation losses.

All-MAC end Ray Reese is a certainty at one flank while defensive stand-out Jerry Roberts looks like the other wingman. Lettermen Ron Blackledge and Fred Churchill help make this the best fortified position on the squad. Last year reserves Jim Cordiak and Tom Colaner will be good in supporting roles. Clarence Mason is top sophomore and could be in contention with some experience.

The tackle spot will be in capable hands with all-Ohio and all-league Larry Baker returning to his old spot after a try at guard in spring drills. Lettermen Bob Zimpfer and Dave Jeter will battle for the other spot. Max Schindler and Ray Bennett are still around from last year's varsity. The leading first year men will be 235-pound Ralph White, Al Kebl and Bob Bird.

Perry's top problem is at guard. Chuck Ramsey and Dan Roberds saw very little action last year. Perry may have to dig down to his sophomore ranks and bring up Jerry Colaner and Ron Isgro, both very able performers. There is also a possibility that some position changes might bring a veteran or two into this position.

The center post, like the ends, is in good hands. Lettermen Jim Dreher, Bob Morrill and John Valentine are most capable. Junior Glenn Fitch and sophomore Ron Williams will be good reserves.

Overall the Falcons should have a good first eleven. The reserve strength must come from the untested varsity reserves of last year and a good group of sophomores.

Perry concentrates on the ground game, however, this year lacks a couple of speedsters to help break a game open. Much like last year's team that finished 13th nationally in defense, the 1958 eleven should be tops again on defense. The predictors put the Falcons down for second place in the MAC. By late season the Falcons should be pushing hard for a chance to regain the crown lost to the Redskins of Miami.

The Mid-American Conference . . .

The Mid-American Conference, organized during the 1946-47 school year, will be moving into its second decade of football competition with the start of the 12th season. The makeup of the conference has had frequent changes but for the past four years the league has been stabilizing itself with seven permanent members.

Charter members of the league included Butler, Wayne, Western Reserve, Cincinnati, and Ohio University, the only remaining member. The other members and year of admittance are Miami and Western Michigan (1947), Toledo (1950), Kent State University (1951), Bowling Green (1952), and Marshall College (1953).

The MAC has been traditionally one of the nation's strongest conference as evidenced by the fine record that they have accomplished against other conference and independent powerhouses. In the NCAA basketball tournaments, the MAC champion receives an automatic invitation. In football despite important victories over Big Ten, Missouri Valley Conference, eastern and mid-western independents, the NCAB still carries the MAC teams in the "small college" classification.

Dr. David E. Reese, all-time Denison University great and later a professional football and basketball player and highly regarded sports official for many years, has been conference commissioner since the league started. He assigns all officials for football and basketball. His office is at 2608 Oak Park Ave., Dayton 9, Ohio, Telephone is Oxmoor 3169.

Don Cunningham, athletic publicity director at Bowling Green State University, is official conference statistician and news service man. This service includes regular distribution of conference team and individual statistics in the same manner as the NCAB distributes national summaries.
