ABOUT THE COVER . . .

Pre-season football prognostications, especially in the helter-skelter world of Mid-American Conference competition, are shadowy at best. At least, that's the way artist Robert S. Beach, Bowling Green junior, saw the picture. The cover, from an original idea and line drawing by Mr. Beach, reflects the 1963 Falcon fortunes. It remains for the rest of this brochure—and 10 fall football classics—to turn form into fact and shadow into detail.

CO-CAPTAINS FOR 1963

Bowling Green's 1963 football co-captains—end John Doyle and guard Bill Violet—are no newcomers to athletic leadership. Two of the finest prep stars in Ohio history, both served as captain in three sports while compiling brilliant high school records.

Co-captain Doyle was a four sport star at Huron High, leading the football, baseball and basketball teams and also saving time to compete in track. He started his BG career as a tackle but was moved to end after his sophomore season to take advantage of his size and speed.

While at Mechanicsburg High, Violet earned class A all-state tackle honors and was all-conference for four years. He also captained the football, baseball and basketball squads, earning 15 varsity letters in all. Falcon coaches hail Violet for his durability and aggressive attitude.

A physical education major, Violet is married and the father of two daughters. Doyle, formerly a physical education major, is now enrolled in the transportation division of the College of Business.

THE UNIVERSITY

As one of Ohio's six state-supported institutions, Bowling Green State University has grown from humble beginnings in 1910 to a highly respected and fully accredited school with an expected enrollment of 8,000 in the fall of 1963. The University is composed of three undergraduate colleges—College of Liberal Arts, College of Education and College of Business Administration—and a Graduate School which offers curricula leading to the master's degree in seven fields.

First class work began at Bowling Green in 1914 with a faculty of 21 and an enrollment of 304. No significant expansion came until 1929 when the General Assembly of Ohio renamed the school Bowling Green State College and provided funds for the development of a liberal arts college offering professional and pre-professional training. The school was renamed Bowling Green State University in 1935 and other undergraduate schools and the graduate school were added.

The University is located in the northeast edge of Bowling Green, a city of nearly 14,000 persons in the heartland of Ohio agriculture, industry and business enterprise. On the 800-acre campus are over 60 permanent buildings, with more under construction.

Included on the campus are a 12,600-seat football stadium, a 5,700-seat basketball arena, golf practice area, natatorium, tennis courts; CAA-approved airport with surfaced runways; speech and hearing clinic; reading center; a library with volumes in excess of 340,000; a Memorial Chapel and other educational facilities. Seventeen fraternities and 12 sororities located on campus along with seven residence centers accommodate most of the University students. Army and Air Force ROTC units are also on campus.

PREVIEW OF 1963

The success of Bowling Green's 1963 football season will be measured on a yardstick of errors. The fewer mistakes made by a large crop of talented sophomores is expected to spell the difference between a so-so season and a third straight Mid-American Conference championship.

The Falcons, unbeaten in a MAC game since Ohio University inflicted a 14-7 defeat in 1960, lost 17 of 32 letterwinners from the 1962 team—including nine of the starting unit and 16 of the first 22 players. Regardless of the method used, the formula for the 1963 season is the same: few tested veterans + nearly 30 eager sophomores equals one large question mark.

Coach Doyt Perry has recorded a 60-8-5 record at BG since coming here in 1955. Included in the regime are four conference championships, three second places and one third place. But the heaviest graduation losses in Perry's eight seasons could put that record in jeopardy this fall.

Only all-MAC center Ed Bettridge and second team all-MAC halfback Jay Cunningham are holdovers from last year's 7-1-1 club. Needless to add, Perry will count even more heavily on this pair in 1963.

On the brighter side, Perry has three definite pluses. The 1962 freshman team was the best in the school's history and is expected to yield at least a half dozen players of starting caliber. In addition, a fine spring practice—one Perry called the most important of his stay at BG—has shed a ray of hope on some of the most serious problems in the interior line.

Perry has a scheduling advantage, too. The Falcons open with three non-conference foes—Detroit, Southern Illinois and Dayton—affording the sophomores a chance to make less costly mistakes before the tougher trials of MAC competition.

"I think we'll have a pretty good first team, but our problem is finding depth, particularly in the line," opines Perry.

The Ends: A Stockpile of Talent

At end more than any other position, the Falcons seem well fortified with experience, speed and depth. Six returning flankers, led by co-captain John Doyle, erase all worries at this position with 1962 defensive starter Tom Sims and a pair of tough veterans—Fred Phillis and Wayne Smith—also back. Norm Limpert, who ranked 32nd among major college punters last year as a sophomore, and 1961 letterwinner Gary Whitaker are also returnees. The freshman team also yielded some top end candidates—John Jennings and Heath Wingate among them.

The Tackles: Big Job For Big Sophs

With only senior letterwinner Steve Huzicko back at tackle, major surgery might be needed if it weren't for a pair of economy-sized yearlings who are already being billed for starting duty. Tony Lawrence, who scales in at something over 310 pounds, is a transfer from Scottsbluff (Neb.) J. C. while Jerry Jones, a 250-pounder, is one of the most promising stars from last year's frosh team. Two more sophomore tackles, Tony Fire (235) and Bill Earhart (225) could make the others hustle for the starting jobs.

The Guards: Need For Experienced Hands

At least one guard slot appears set with co-captain Bill Violet back for his third season of varsity competition. Who joins the 195-pound workman in the line probably won't be decided until just before the Sept. 21 opener with Detroit. But it's likely that Ken Burke, 235-pound letterwinner at tackle last year, will have to fight it out with seniors Fred Koester (205), Mel Foels (205) and soph Bill Toth to win the spot. The guards also handle line-backing duties on defense.

The Centers: Strong at the Top

Perry is seeking a reliable center to back up all-MAC choice Ed Bettridge, and will probably find two capable stand-ins in letterman Bill Ruiter (185) or 1962 varsity reserve Ron Eaton (210). If these two don't come through, sophomore Bob Hughes (220) probably will. Perry has only a small worry here.

The Quarterbacks: One of the Two

The biggest problem facing the BG coaching staff is finding a MAC—caliber quarterback. The problem won't be solved easily. Junior Jerry Ward won a letter in a third-string role last year—seeing most of his duty in passing situations. Although his air record is fair (9 of 22 for 151 yards) he lacks the play-calling experience of 160-pounder Howard (Moe) Ankney. Because Ward has a letter, and because he impressed in spring drills, the coaches generally concede him the inside track to be the regular play-picker. Not only that, he's a junior while Ankney is a senior. Ward has a five inch and 25-pound physical edge, too. "It will be one of the two," says Perry hopefully.

The Halfbacks: Speed in Spades

The 1963 BG halfbacks will be young, small and plenty quick. The Falcons raided the Ohio prep crop of 1961 for four of the state's top sprinters. Now, they're set to make haste with the pigskin. Fastest of the newcomers is Jim Goings, a 9.7 man in the 100 at Toledo Libbey. Tom Wright, also a 9.7 man, is another quickie as is Jim Burkhart. Barry Weaver, a two-year award winner, joins 1962 all-MAC pick Jay Cunningham as an experienced performer. Capable relief for the frontliners should come from John Moyer, Tony Trent and Tom Reicosky, a trio of 1962 reserves. Trent was especially impressive in the 1963 spring game. Although young, the Falcon halfback talent may be potentially stronger than in any year under Perry.

The Fullbacks: High Hopes

Last year's No. 1 fullback, Ray Bell, is gone but there's little room for worry in the Falcon camp. Perry feels he has a fine sophomore prospect in Bob Pratt, a 190-pounder who was fast enough to win the 1961 Ohio 220-yard dash championship at Lowellville. Lynn Robinson is expected to share the ball toting duties with Pratt. Jim Wisser, a defensive specialist, is another fullback possibility if the rookies falter.

FALCON FORMATIONS

Offense—Bowling Green is a balanced-line team, running several variations off of the straight-T formation. Wingbacks, slotbacks, some double wingback and an occasional split end—as well as the regular T—will all be seen by Falcon followers in 1963.

Defense—Always a successful defensive team, the 1963 BeeGees will again operate out of the basic 5-4-2 (Oklahoma) formation. Depending on the situation, the Falcons sometimes shift into a four or a six man line or a 6-2-2-1 setup.

Still holds Wildcats' shot put and discus marks . . . Plans a career in teaching.

GARY WHITAKER, Senior, 6-1 and 180, Wapakoneta, O., 21, Health and Physical Education . . . Won a letter in 1961 but failed last year as an ankle injury slowed him all season . . . Has the ability to be a fine all-around end but has yet to reach potential . . . Has good hands, speed and movement . . . Expected to improve greatly this year . . . A three-letterman for the Redskins, he won all-league and area honors and captained the team in 1959 . . . Also won four letters in track and two in basketball . . . Was all-league, area and honorable mention all-state for Wapaks . . . Married . . . Plans to coach.

The Tackles

Lettermen Lost (3): Bob Crofcheck, Willis Jones, Bob Reynolds.
Lettermen Back (1): Steve Huzicko.

LARRY COOK, Senior, 6-5 and 235, Toledo, O., 20, Health and Physical Education . . . Coaches hope this former Toledo Libbey star has saved his finest performance for his senior year . . . Has been slow in developing but may surprise this year by winning a starting job . . . Has good size and movement . . . Was all-city defensive tackle for Libbey and second team offense . . . Won all-state honors, too . . . A fine all-around athlete, he was an all-Ohio first baseman and a three-year basketball letter winner . . . Hopes to teach and coach.

BILL EARHART, Sophomore, 6-3 and 225, Troy, O., 19, Health and Physical Education . . . Won freshman numerals in 1961 and is back after a year out of school . . . Formerly in the College of Business . . . Has good size and moves well, but lacks the experience needed for regular service this season . . . Tough and strong as well as aggressive . . . Sparkles on defense although he can go both ways . . . A brilliant prospect who can be a surprise.

TONY FIRE, Sophomore, 6-3 and 235, Struthers, O., 20, History . . . Rated a top prospect from last year's frosh squad . . . Has good speed and agility . . . Is a coachable athlete so should improve . . . A nine-letter winner at Struthers High, taking three in football, two in basketball and four in track . . . Captained 1961 grid team and won all-league honors . . . Named the outstanding lineman in the league . . . Broke into last year's frosh final statistics when he intercepted a pass against Western Michigan . . . Plans to teach history.

STEVE HUZICKO, Senior, 6-4 and 220, Struthers, O., 21, Advertising . . . Played just enough behind now-departed Willis Jones last year to win a letter . . . Expected to improve this year in spirited competition for starting jobs . . . Was all-league for Struthers High under Ed Strouss . . . Also won four letters as a basketball forward . . . Held down first base for three years on the diamond and put the shot for the track team . . . Started career with a year at Xavier before transferring to BG . . . Plans a career in executive advertising.

TONY LAWRENCE, Junior, 6-6 and 310, Springfield, O., 21, Art . . . Could be the best lineman in cleats at BG this year . . . Has fair speed despite size . . . Is immovable on defense and may play middle guard . . . Transfer from Scottsbluff (Neb.) Junior College . . . Son of Brooks Lawrence, former major league pitching star . . . Collects jazz records as a hobby . . . Won a letter as a senior at Springfield South . . . Got biggest thrill when team went unbeaten and won last game 59-0 . . . Spent a year as a pitcher for South baseball team . . . Coaches rate him an excellent prospect . . . Can fire out from the line of scrimmage with the best . . . Plans a career in teaching.

JERRY JONES, Sophomore, 6-3 and 250, Dayton, O., 20, Health and Physical Education . . . An unspectacular but steady performer for last year's frosh team . . . Rated as a potentially great tackle . . . Has good speed and mobility for his size . . . Won four letters at Dayton Dunbar under Jack Hart . . . Was captain and won all-city honors his senior year . . . Also won four letters in track and three as a basketball forward . . . Still holds city and district shot put records . . . Coaches feel he is the most outstanding tackle prospect from the 1962 frosh outfit . . . Collects records as a hobby . . . Plans a career in coaching.

JEFF POLEN, Senior, 6-3 and 235, Hopedale, O., 21, History . . . May move into the alternate unit this year and see regular service after two seasons as a varsity reserve . . . A three-letter man at Hopedale High . . . Captained team and won sportsmanship and outstanding defensive player trophies . . . Won three letters as a basketball center and was captain as a senior . . . Wants to teach history.

The Guards

Lettermen Lost (4): Bob Blue, Jim Grant, Gary Sherman, Jim Wasserman.

Lettermen Back (2): Ken Burke, Bill Violet.

KEN BURKE, Senior, 6-1 and 225, Cleveland, O., 22, Sales Advertising . . . Shifted from tackle where he won a letter behind all-MAC choice Bob Reynolds last year . . . Rated an excellent choice to break into starting lineup . . . Likes it rough . . . Prefers steady work of guard slot to that of tackle . . . Was all-conference and all-Catholic pick for two straight years at Cleveland St. Stanislaus . . . Honored as the top tackle in the last decade at his school . . . Would like to try professional football . . . Scored a touchdown in last year's Kent State game, going 12-yards with a blocked punt . . . Hobby is electronics . . . Hopes for a career in radio-TV sales . . . Potentially a great one.

JAY DORSEY, Senior, 6-0 and 205, Troy, O., 21, Health and Physical Education . . . May get a chance for some regular duty this season after two years as a varsity reserve . . . Compiled brilliant record at Troy High . . . Served as captain and won all-Ohio honors and most valuable lineman award . . . Also an all-Dayton Journal Herald pick and played for South in Dayton North-South game . . . Also won three letters as a basketball forward . . . Would like to teach.

MEL FOELS, Junior, 6-0 and 205, Toledo, O., 20, Health and Physical Education . . . May be the surprise of the season at guard . . . A varsity reserve last year until he injured his knee . . . Missed spring drills because of the knee . . . An all-league selection for two seasons at Toledo Whitmer . . . Also won two letters in wrestling and finished third in the state 175-pound championships . . . Won a letter in track as well . . . Enjoys carpentry off the grid-iron . . . Plans a teaching and coaching career.

JIM GRANT, Sophomore, 6-1 and 212, Columbus, O., 19, Education . . . Another of a crop of good guards from last year's freshman team . . . Co-captained 1961 East High team and won honorable mention all-Columbus . . . Enjoys bowling in his spare time . . . Named Mudcat after the Cleveland Indians pitcher . . . Won four letters in prep career, three in football and one in wrestling . . . No planned career.

FRED KOESTER, Senior, 6-1 and 205, Genoa, O., 21, Biology . . .
A tough senior who may see plenty of action this year at right guard . . . Has never lettered . . . A stickout guard at Genoa Clay High, he captained team in his senior year . . . An all-league, all-county and most valuable lineman choice as a prep . . . Still holds school discus record . . . Lettered twice as a trackman and twice as a basketball forward . . . Career plans undecided.

BILL TOTH, Sophomore, 6-0 and 220, Toledo, O., 20, Health and Physical Education . . .
A tough and strong performer who coaches feel will help to patch up graduation losses at guard . . . An all-Ohio linebacker and guard at Toledo Central Catholic in his prep days . . . A transfer from junior college, he sat out a year to regain status . . . Excels on defense . . . A top prospect.

MEET COACH DOYT PERRY

Perry: Grim moments like this have been few.

The winningest college football coach in America—that's the most outstanding epithet to go into the record books beside the name of Doyt Perry, starting his ninth season as head coach of the Bowling Green Falcons.

Perry's credentials read like an honor role of the grand old gridiron sport. With an amazing 60-8-5 lifetime record in his previous eight seasons, no coach in the land can claim a winning percentage better than Perry's .856.

Along with the record, Perry coached Bowling Green's 1959 team to the Washington Touchdown Club award as the national college division champion and finished second in the same competition in 1960. Twice selected Ohio Coach-of-the-Year (1956 and 1959) and once UPI Coach-of-the-Week, Perry continues to pile up honors.

In addition, Perry has tutored 25 all-Ohio and all-Mid-American Conference players (an average of more than three per season) and has coached two little-All-American selections (Bob Zimpfer and Bernie Casey). He's one of the nation's top clinic speakers, too.

Perry-coached teams have finished below second only once in the rough Mid-American competition, that in 1958 when the Falcons "slipped" to a 4-2 conference record. Bowling Green has won the title outright four times under Perry (1956-59-61-62) and has finished second on three other occasions (1955-57-60).

In 1956, BG claimed the title on a 7-7 tie with Miami when the Redskins participated in one less game. The Falcons swept through the 1959 campaign with a 9-0 mark and compiled a 7-1-1 record and went 5-0-1 in the league last year. In 1961, the BeeGees became the first team since Cincinnati turned the trick in 1947 to lose a game and still win the MAC title, finishing 5-1 in the league and 8-2 over all.

Perry's teams rang up 18 straight victories from the 1958 season until a final period touchdown by Ohio University ended the string in 1960. Against non-conference foes, the Perry record is equally phenomenal—23 victories in 25 games with losses only to Fresno State in the 1961 Mercy Bowl and to West Texas State last season.

Perry came to Bowling Green in 1955 after serving four years under Woody Hayes at Ohio State as head backfield coach. Hayes considered him the offensive mastermind of the Buckeyes' 1954 Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship team.

A strong advocate of "sound football," Perry is well known for his ability to mold his teams into versatile offensive and defensive units. Under Perry, the Falcons have averaged just over 27 points per game while holding the opposition to just over eight points per game. Last year, the Falcons led both the offensive and defensive statistical departments in the MAC.

Being a successful coach is nothing new to Perry. Since he received his degree from Bowling Green in 1932, the former Falcon three-sport star has turned out winners without a letup.

After four years of winning basketball and track coaching at Lorain Clearview, Perry instituted football there in 1937 and in the next six years guided his charges to a 32-9-4 record and four league championships. His basketball and track records at Clearview surpassed his football achievements.

In 1943, Perry joined the staff of Upper Arlington High as head football and basketball coach. His first grid team at the Columbus suburb had a 7-2 campaign and his basketball team went undefeated until the district tournament semi-finals.

After a three-year Navy hitch, Perry was back at Upper Arlington in 1946 where he narrowed his coaching concentration to football. In the next five years, Perry's teams either won or shared the Central Buckeye title four times and went through unbeaten seasons twice in the process.

During his undergraduate days at Bowling Green, Perry was an outstanding athlete. He quarterbacked the 1929-30-31 teams that won 18 games without a loss. He was named to the all-NWOC all-star team for two seasons and won all-Ohio mention as a senior. He was a regular forward for three basketball seasons and topped off his nine-letter career with three seasons as the baseball team's top shortstop.

Along with a winning record at Bowling Green, Perry has assembled a fine crop of young assistants. This fine group of young men, educators as well as coaches, have instilled a desire to win in the Falcon athletes and followers. Energy and hard work have gained for Perry's Falcons one of the largest followings in the Midwest. Word got around.

He received his secondary education at Hartford High in Croton (Licking County) Ohio, where he also starred in three sports.

Mrs. Perry is the former Loretta Zeroll of Elyria. The couple has three children—Judy, a 1962 BGSU graduate; David, 16; and D. L., 12.

1963 SPRING GAME

A favored White team parlayed backfield speed with an unyielding defense to whitewash the Browns, 20-0, in the 9th annual spring intrasquad game May 9.

The game—climax to what Coach Doyt Perry called "our most important spring practice in years"—saw a White team composed of first and fourth stringers use ball control tactics to take a 6-0 first half lead and then turn to speed for a pair of third period touchdowns that assured victory.

Junior quarterback Jerry Ward guided the Whites 57 yards in six plays the second time they got the ball, the payoff coming on a Ward-to-Jay Cunningham shovel pass covering 32 yards.

After a scoreless second quarter, White halfback Tony Trent scampered 56-yards to paydirt on the third play after intermission with Jim Jones adding the PAT from placement.

Just over two minutes later, Cunningham took Norm Limpert's punt on the White 38, bobbled it, then recovered to go 62-yards for the score. Jones added the conversion to end the scoring with 10:24 still remaining in the third period.

The Browns, but for a stubborn White line spearheaded by 310-pound tackle Tony Lawrence, could have won the game. Three times they pushed inside the White 20-yard line, only to lose the ball on downs twice and fumble away another chance.

Midway through the third period, quarterback Moe Ankney guided the Browns to the White 15. The Browns had an even better chance in the final quarter, moving to the two before the Whites stiffened.

The Browns spoiled their own chance in the second period when a fumble on the White 11 ended a drive.

Trent emerged as the game's leading rusher with 92 yards in six carries while sophomore fullback Bob Pratt had 43 yards in 11 tries.
